PICK-UP BASKETBALL CODE OF CONDUCT

Teen/adult recreation must follow the code of conduct and use the whiteboard for pick-up games

FORMAT

For the first game of the night, choose captains or shoot teams.
Players will sign up on the whiteboard to fill the next team.
Sign up is on first come, first served basis. You may only write your own name.
Players on the court may not sign up until they are finished playing.
The losing team always comes off the court. Winner stays on for a second game and then comes off.
Games are to be no more than 10 points using 1 and 2 point system.

ETIQUETTE

If you wish to play with your own 5, you may sign up together in the next available 5 spot roster. All players must be present.
Make your own calls. Respect other player's calls and do not argue.
Absolutely no profanity, arguing or fighting.
Adults may not utilize the full court during family or youth recreation.
If you choose not to abide by these guidelines, membership privileges may be provoked.
